LEGAL TO HUG YOUR WIFE.

In the Lackawanna county, Pa. Court at Scranton on Tuesday a jury decided that a man had a right to hug his wife, even against her protestations.

This novel verdict was found in the Criminal Court case of H. J. Hoover, of Bald Mount, who was accused by his wife with assault and battery.

She declared that he seized her by the wrist one day, and also squeezed her so tightly about the waist that she was choked. Mr. Hoover admitted that he did this, but not so violently as his wife alleged. Hoover alleged that he and his wife had a falling out in the morning, and that they did not speak to each other all day long. At night he approached her with a proposition that they kiss and make up, but she refused to acquiesce. He followed her again and attempted to caress her. She repelled his endearments. He then caught her by the wrists, and drawing her into his lap, hugged her right heartily. In the morning she arose early and informed her relatives of her husband's actions and they insisted that he be prosecuted. The jury of twelve men, good and true, not only found Hoover not guilty, but directed William Shelby, a relative of Mrs. Hoover, who brought the action and was the prosecutor, to pay the costs.

His wife worried him to death. Theodore Leon, forty-nine years old, a traveling salesman, died on Sunday in Flower Hospital, a few hours after having fallen unconscious in the Yorkville Police Court, New York, where his wife was arraigned for intoxication for the fourth time in a week. It is supposed that he had a weak heart, and that worry over his wife's dissipation hastened his death.

When the woman was brought in the husband fell to the floor. He tried to run out of the pen so as to get to her husband, but she was restrained by the officers. She moaned and begged that she be informed as to her husband's condition and blamed herself in bitter terms for his illness.

"Madam, I hope this will cause you to forsake your unfortunate ways," said Magistrate Crane. "For the sake of your husband, who is so ill, I will discharge you."

By this time an ambulance had arrived from Flower Hospital. The surgeon said that the man was suffering from syncope, and detected faint flutterings of the heart that showed he was still alive. Leon was taken to Flower Hospital and remained unconscious for several hours.

Mrs. Leon went to the hospital and after staying some time with her husband went to her home. She returned later and was with him when he died.

MORMON ELDERS EJECTED.—A mob of 200 men seized four Mormon elders yesterday, and taking them to Live Oak, Fla., forced them to take the train for the West. The elders were rather roughly handled by the mob. The names of the Mormons are W. G. Fisher, J. A. West, J. W. Musser and T. F. Wardsen. These men have been preaching their doctrines in Suwanee county for two months. They have been very successful among the women and have broken up several families. Finally indignation became so intense that a mob was formed and the steps noted above taken. The action of the mob is generally indorsed. Considering the circumstances, everything was done very quietly.

The Grandest Remedy.
Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for Coughs, Colds and Consumption. It doesn't fail. Trial bottles free at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

The Fact that Doctors frequently advise change of air and climate to those suffering from catarrh is proof that catarrh is a local and climatic disease. Therefore, unless you can leave home and busi-ness, you should use Ely's Cream Balm. Applied directly to the seat of the disease, it effects instant relief and a satisfactory cure after a short continuance. No mercury nor injurious drug is contained in the Balm.

For Over Fifty Years

It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for all these ailments. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world.
